A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5283 AS INTRODUCED 11-13-89

The Displaced Homemakers Act establishes employment support services for homemakers who have not been gainfully employed outside the home for an extended period of time and who have depended on the income of a family member, or on government assistance as the parent of a dependent child, and are no longer supported by the income or assistance. The act will expire October 1, 1991. The bill would repeal the expiration date.
