NONPROFITS: PRISONER LABOR

House Bill 4261

Sponsor: Rep. Marvin L. Knight

Committee: Appropriations

Complete to 3-7-91

A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 4261 AS INTRODUCED 2-13-91

At present, work camp prisoners may be allowed to perform meaningful work at paid employment in the community, or to provide labor on public works projects. The bill would amend the corrections code to in addition allow the Department of Corrections to assign work camp prisoners to perform meaningful work on projects that serve the public interest or a charitable purpose and are operated by tax-exempt organizations.
