CPR AT DAY CARE

House Bill 4854

Sponsor: Rep. Michael J. Bennane

Committee: Social Services and Youth

Complete to 10-14-91

A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 4854 AS INTRODUCED 5-22-91

The bill would amend the child care licensing act to require child care facilities to have on duty at all times at least one person who was certified in basic first aid and infant and child cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The bill would apply to child care centers, day care centers, family day care homes, and group care homes. The certification would have to be issued by the American Red Cross or a comparable organization or institution.
