A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5038 INTRODUCED 7-25-91

Under the Inland Lakes and Streams Act, the Department of Natural Resources is required to either grant or deny, within 60 days, an application for a permit for a construction project on a inland lake or stream. If a public hearing is held, notification of approval or denial must be made within 90 days. Under the bill, an application would be considered approved if the department did not approve or disapprove the permit application within the time provided under the act.
