LOCAL LIQUOR CONTROL

House Bill 5403

Sponsor: Rep. Alvin Hoekman

Committee: Towns and Counties

Complete to 4-1-92

A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 5403 INTRODUCED 12-12-92

Currently, the Michigan Liquor Control Act prohibits consumption of alcoholic liquor on public highways. In addition, no alcoholic liquor, except beer or wine, may be consumed in public parks or "places of amusement" that aren't licensed to sell for consumption on the premises. House Bill 5403 would amend the act to permit the consumption of liquor in these areas unless prohibited by a county, city, township, village, charter authority, or other public authority, or a state department or agency.
