A SUMMARY OF HOUSE BILL 4202 AS INTRODUCED 2-10-93

The bill would amend the child care licensing act, Public Act 116 of 1973, to forbid a child placing agency from soliciting or accepting a contribution from a prospective adoptive parent; contributions made as payment for the cost of an adoption service that had been rendered would be allowed. A child placing agency could not offer preferential treatment in connection with an adoption service in return for a contribution. (A "contribution" under the bill would include the payment of money or the donation of goods or services.)
