- 2 petition signed by 600 or more of his or her constituents or to a
- 3 postcard or similar mail-in campaign to the senator by 600 or
- 4 more of his or her constituents. The state senator shall limit
- 5 the mailing during the prohibited period only to the issue or
- 6 concern raised by his or her constituents in the petition or the
- 7 postcard or similar mail-in campaign.
- 8 (3) A state senator who is the chair of a senate committee
- 9 may use state funds to mail 600 or more pieces of substantially
- 10 similar material during the period prohibited by this section if
- 11 the mailing directly relates to the business of the committee.
- 12 The state senator shall limit the mailing during the prohibited
- 13 period only to the business of the committee.
- 14 (4) A state senator may use state funds to mail 600 or more
- 15 pieces of substantially similar material during the period pro-
- 16 hibited by this section if the mailing directly responds to an
- 17 issue of current concern to 600 or more of his or her constitu-
- 18 ents who have previously contacted the state senator regarding
- 19 that issue during his or her term of office. The state senator
- 20 shall limit the mailing during the prohibited period only to the
- 21 issue of current concern to his or her constituents.
- 22 (5) A state senator may use state funds to mail 600 or more
- 23 nonpartisan ballot guides or nonpartisan budget reports, or both,
- 24 prepared pursuant to section 3.
