Senate Bill 610 (as passed by the Senate)
Sponsor: Senator Leon Stille
Committee: Local, Urban and State Affairs

Date Completed: 8-11-98

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Management and Budget Act to provide that the Department of Management and Budget could not do either of the following:

- Require a person who bid on or was awarded a State contract to have an affirmative action plan in place unless there was a finding of discrimination against that person by a State agency or court.
- Give preference to a business when reviewing bids or awarding contracts because an affirmative action plan existed or did not exist.
