Senator Gary Peters of the 14th District offered the following invocation:

Dear Lord, as we gather here today, we are reminded that we were placed on this earth to do Your work. We are also given direction by Your word in Romans 12:14.

For by the grace given me I say to every one of you do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. Just as each of us has one body with many members and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, who are many, form one body and each member belongs to all of the others. We have different gifts according to the grace given us. If a man's gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith. If it is serving, let him serve. If it is teaching, let him teach. If it is encouraging, let him encourage. If it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously. If it is leadership, let him govern diligently. If it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully. In the name of our Lord. Amen.
