Senate Bill 1184 (as introduced 3-29-00)
Sponsor: Senator Don Koivisto
Committee: Local, Urban and State Affairs

Date Completed: 5-17-00

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure to provide that a law enforcement officer of an adjacent state (Indiana, Ohio, Minnesota, or Wisconsin) or of a county, city, village, township, or other political subdivision of an adjacent state, which political subdivision was adjacent to this State, would have the same authority and immunity as a law enforcement officer of the State, if the law enforcement officer were authorized to arrest a person, with or without a warrant, for a violation of a penal statute or law in the adjacent state; if the law enforcement officer were on duty as a law enforcement officer in the adjacent state; and if one or more of the following applied:

- The law enforcement officer was engaged in pursuing, arresting, or attempting to arrest an individual for a violation of a law in the adjacent state.
- The law enforcement officer notified a law enforcement officer or agency in Michigan that he or she was in this State.
- The law enforcement officer was in this State at the request of a law enforcement officer of Michigan or of a county, city, village, township of this State.
- The law enforcement officer was responding to an emergency.

("Emergency" would mean a sudden or unexpected circumstance that required immediate action to protect the health, safety, welfare, or property of an individual from actual or threatened harm or from an unlawful act.)
