Under 1961 PA 44 (MCL 780.582a), interim bond prior to arraignment is prohibited for someone arrested under a domestic assault warrant. The bill would amend the interim bond statute consistent with HB 5272, which would amend the penal code to include dating relationships within the statutes prescribing the penalties for domestic assault and aggravated domestic assault. The bill thus could affect jail utilization and jail costs, depending on the numbers of offenders involved and the speed with which they can be arraigned. However, any fiscal impact is likely to be minimal.
