SUMMARY

Senate Bill 395 would create an act to declare April 24 of each year as the Michigan Day of Remembrance of the Armenian Genocide of 1915-1923, and that the period beginning on the Sunday before that day through the following Sunday shall be the days of remembrance, in memory of the victims of the genocide, and in honor of the survivors.

There is no fiscal impact to either the state or local units of government by this bill.
