Changes from FY 2000-01 Year-to-Date:

1. Prison Watch Towers. The Joint Capital Outlay Subcommittee (JCOS) reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires new maximum security prisons to have operational watch towers. (Sec. 301).
2. New Prison Sites. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires JCOS approval of any new prison site. (Sec. 302).
3. JCOS Notification. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires JCOS notification of any capital outlay expenditure not previously reviewed by the JCOS. (Sec. 405).
4. Comparative Cost Analysis. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires, upon JCOS request, a detailed comparative cost analysis of a construction project or lease that costs more than $1,000,000. (Sec. 407).
5. Five Year Planning Documents. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires 5 year planning documents to be submitted to the JCOS upon release of Executive Budget. (Sec. 408).
6. Self Funded Project Reports. The JCOS concurs with the Governor to eliminate the requirement that colleges and universities report on all projects costing between $500,000 and $1,000,000.
7. Special Maintenance Funds. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires a report on allocation of special maintenance funds. The JCOS concurs in the Governor's recommendation to allow special maintenance appropriations to exist for 3 years. (Sec. 601).
8. Demolition of Buildings. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires specific approval of demolition requests. (Sec. 602).
9. Special Maintenance Approval. The JCOS deletes the requirement that special maintenance expenditures of $1,000,000 from lump sum maintenance accounts receive JCOS approval. (Sec. 603).
10. College/University Consortia. The JCOS concurs with the Governor to eliminate language indicating 100% state financing for certain consortia projects.
11. Private Leased Space Report. The JCOS reinstates language eliminated by the Governor that requires a report on privately owned leased space by state agencies. (Sec. 902).
12. Capital Outlay Match Rates. The JCOS removes language included by the Governor which would have put in boilerplate the current policy that university capital outlay projects include a 25% match from the institution.
13. Haven Hills Natural Area. The JCOS appropriates the $800,000 settlement from Detroit Edison for damages at the Haven Hills Natural area. Language is retained that allows the Department to receive in kind services up to $800,000, and requires a report on funds received. (Sec. 1003)
14. Airport Projects. The JCOS includes language that ensures that appropriations for airport projects do not lapse for three years. (Sec. 1104).
15. Economic Development Sites. The JCOS concurs with the Governor to reinstate authorization to create an economic development site fund and advance to the fund up to $25,000,000 for site preparation costs to ready a proposed site for disposition. Preparation costs are to be repaid following the sale of the site. (Sec. 1202).
