Senate Bill 746 (S-1) would amend the Business Corporation Act, and Senate Bill 747 (S-1) would amend the Michigan Limited Liability Company Act, to allow a corporation (or a limited liability company) formed, existing under, or subject to the respective acts, that was licensed or was to be licensed as a nursing home, to use the term "health center" or "health care center", or a term conveying a meaning substantially similar to those terms, or the term "rehabilitation center", as long as the terms did not conflict with the terms prohibited by Section 21712 of the Public Health Code.
