1 ~~Beginning in 2001, the~~ THE fee for a nonresident restricted
2 fishing license is $34.00.

3 (2) The restricted fishing license entitles the licensee to
4 take aquatic species as prescribed by law other than trout or 5 salmon.

6 (3) A person ~~12 years of age or older but less than~~ UNDER
7 17 years of age may take aquatic species in the waters over which
8 this state has jurisdiction without a license. However, a person
9 ~~12~~ [5 years of age or older, but] ~~less than~~ UNDER 17 years of 10 age, may obtain an all-species fishing license. The fee for a
11 resident or nonresident who is ~~12~~ [5 years of age or older, but]
12 ~~less than~~ UNDER 17 years of age, for an all-species fishing
13 license is $2.00. The department shall provide a Michigan fish-
14 ing patch to the licensee with the license. The department shall 15 not sell or vendor the list of licensees under this subsection.

16 (4) ~~A resident may purchase an all-species fishing license~~
17 ~~upon payment of a fee of $26.00. Beginning in 1999, the fee for~~
18 ~~a resident all-species fishing license is $27.00. Beginning in~~
19 ~~2001, the~~ THE fee for a resident all-species fishing license is 20 $28.00. ~~The fee for a nonresident all-species fishing license~~
21 ~~is $39.00. Beginning in 1999, the fee for a nonresident~~
22 ~~all-species fishing license is $41.00. Beginning in 2001, the~~ 23 THE fee for a nonresident all-species fishing license is $42.00.

24 (5) The all-species fishing license entitles the licensee to
25 take all species of aquatic species as prescribed by law.

26 (6) ~~Any holder of~~ A PERSON TO WHOM a valid restricted
27 fishing license HAS BEEN ISSUED may return the restricted license

1 to the department or its authorized agent and receive an
2 all-species fishing license by paying a fee equal to the differ-
3 ence in cost between the all-species fishing license and the 4 restricted fishing license for which that person is eligible.
