2. Racing Commissioner

Adds $345,146 from the Agriculture Equine Industry Development Fund to the Racing Commissioner to allow for 46 additional racing dates. Of the additional funding, $308,688 would come from a reduction in Purses and supplements in the Agriculture section of the bill (see above), and $36,458 from private funds provided by the horse racing industry. The horse racing industry supports this funding in order to add horse racing days in 2010. The additional funding includes an estimated $72,688 which would provide for Michigan Department of Agriculture laboratory testing charges.
