Senate Joint Resolution V would amend the State Constitution to specify that a person would be ineligible for election or appointment to any State or local elective office in Michigan if, within the immediately preceding 20 years, he or she had been convicted of a felony involving dishonesty, deceit, fraud, or a breach of the public trust, and the conviction were related to the person's official capacity while holding any elected or appointed local, State, or Federal office. This requirement would be in addition to any other qualification required under the constitution or by law.
