House Resolution No. 163.

A resolution recognizing October 11-17, 2009, as Credit Union Week in the state of Michigan and honoring all Michigan credit unions.

Whereas, Credit unions have been organized in Michigan since 1934, they have a proud tradition of innovation and leadership among the nation's credit unions. The Michigan credit union movement is one of growth, progress, and success; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions are rooted in the communities in which they serve, whether supporting local charities; offering financial education seminars; or operating student-run credit union branches in schools. They do this voluntarily, because as not-for-profit member-owned financial cooperatives, credit unions recognize that social responsibility is an integral part of their mission; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions continue to improve the financial literacy of their members and the community, following the credit union philosophy of "People Helping People"; and

Whereas, Michigan credit unions remain informed through the assistance of the Michigan Credit Union League which has focused exclusively on serving its members throughout its history; a commitment that is concisely expressed in its mission statement: To foster, protect, and promote the vitality of credit unions by providing programs and services that will enhance their ability to enrich the lives of members; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body recognizing October 11-17, 2009, as Credit Union Week in the state of Michigan. We honor Michigan credit unions as they celebrate Credit Union Week.
