Rep. Peter Pettalia, from the 106th District, offered the following invocation:

“Presidents from Washington to present day have recognized a day of prayer, today is that day.

Dear heavenly Father, One Who has created life, grant this body wisdom and patience, so that we may work together for the common goal of this great state of Michigan and our great nation of the United States of America.

As we work together on our daily chores, please give us the wisdom to make the right decision, to not harm our fellow man, but to enhance their lives.

The decisions we make here, must be collective to help us move forward during these trying times.

Those of us that serve, serve with full intentions to do well.

Lord, let us not forget the soldiers that put their life on the line, so that we may be here today, practicing the freedom they protect.

May we wake each day, as citizen legislators, with the collective patience, knowledge, and virtue to guide the state of Michigan forward and do good for our fellow man.

Please heavenly Father bless us today as we continue to move Michigan forward,

And all of Gods children said, Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

---

Rep. Segal moved that Rep. Stallworth be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Madam Speaker,

I voted ‘no’ on this bill package with mixed emotions. There is certainly a problem in our society that these bills address. Confusion and outright fraud in regard to paternity is a growing problem in our state and needs to be dealt with. It is unfortunate that we address this societal problem at its expression rather than its source: the continuing erosion of the sanctity of the marriage relationship and its special role in raising children.

It is because I fear that these bills forget about the special, lawful privileges marriage has always enjoyed I must vote ‘no.’ These privileges are in place because history has always displayed the value of marriage and its causal relationship to strong families constructed on that foundation. The possibility that a lawful husband would need to defend his right to shield a child he takes for his own from the biological father that participated in violating the marriage lowers, rather than elevates marriage. It is because of this I have voted ‘no.’ These bills could have provided the relief and guidance necessary to deal with this ill without lowering marriage. A hedge around the marriage relationship, that recognizes its preeminence, should have been included and hopefully will be before the conclusion of this issue. Thank you.”

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
 Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
 The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. McBroom, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:
 Madam Speaker,

I voted ‘no’ on this bill package with mixed emotions. There is certainly a problem in our society that these bills address. Confusion and outright fraud in regard to paternity is a growing problem in our state and needs to be dealt with. It is unfortunate that we address this societal problem at its expression rather than its source: the continuing erosion of the sanctity of the marriage relationship and its special role in raising children.

It is because I fear that these bills forget about the special, lawful privileges marriage has always enjoyed I must vote ‘no.’ These privileges are in place because history has always displayed the value of marriage and its causal relationship to strong families constructed on that foundation. The possibility that a lawful husband would need to defend his right to shield a child he takes for his own from the biological father that participated in violating the marriage lowers, rather than elevates marriage. It is because of this I have voted ‘no.’ These bills could have provided the relief and guidance necessary to deal with this ill without lowering marriage. A hedge around the marriage relationship, that recognizes its preeminence, should have been included and hopefully will be before the conclusion of this issue. Thank you.”
