Reverend Kurt Lambart of St. Matthew Lutheran Church of Westland offered the following invocation:

Lord God, Heavenly Father, we thank and praise You that You have blessed us in this great land. Lord, I thank You for every Senator whom You have gathered here today. I pray, Lord, that You will bless him or her with a heart and a mind of wisdom, Lord, that they govern to the best of their ability; that they show true humility, Lord, and are considerate of all men. I pray, Father, that You would give them Your guidance, Your counsel, and Your wisdom as they seek to govern in a way that glorifies You and does not seek the approval of man.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senator Richardville asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Richardville's statement is as follows:

Colleagues, it is with much appreciation and gratitude that I'm asking you to join me to pay tribute to the exceptional work of Canda Flores, as she's helped most of us with our benefits and others things, and some of us struggle with that kind of stuff. I look out and I see some of you whom I know struggle with it—that she makes look so easy. She's departing the Michigan State Senate to take a position with the Department of Human Services. I'm kind of tired of the Governor stealing all our good people.

For more than five years, Canda has served the Michigan Senate as a human resources specialist in the Finance Office. With her this morning are Tom Warner, manager of the Finance Office, and her co-workers, Nikki, Terry, Diane, Tom, Celene, and Shelli. Canda has helped the Finance Office maintain a very high level of efficiency in the areas of payroll—even the cut that we got this term—and benefits. In her role, she took great pride in assisting Senate employees with their payroll and benefits; always patient and quick to respond whenever someone had a question, myself included.

Canda enjoys spending her free time with family and friends. She and her husband enjoy cooking together and entertaining. She spends much of her summer days boating and enjoying the outdoors.

I'm sincere especially about this part: Her professionalism has contributed a great deal to the efficiency of this institution and for the people of this great state. So, on behalf of the lawmakers, staff, and all who have worked with Canda, I offer her congratulations as she moves on to this next chapter in her career and much gratitude for her valued contributions to the Michigan State Senate. We wish her much continued success.
