2 the extent the restrictions shall be made applicable to them. Any 3 recipient of the proceeds of bonds bearing interest that is 4 intended to be exempt from federal income tax, including without 5 limitation this state or any political subdivision of this state, 6 is authorized to execute a tax regulatory agreement with the 7 authority and, as to any political subdivision that is a recipient

4 as specified by the authority in the authority resolution under 5 which the bonds are issued or in a related trust agreement or trust

7 bonds in fully marketable form.

8 (5) The authority may sell the bonds in the manner determined
9 by the authority board, at public or private sale, and on either a 10 competitive or negotiated basis.

11 (6) This act shall govern the creation, perfection, priority, 12 and enforcement of any pledge of revenues or other security made by 13 the authority. Each pledge made by the authority shall be valid and 14 binding at the time the pledge is made. The encumbered revenues, 15 reserves, or earnings pledged or earnings on the investment of the 16 encumbered revenues, reserves, or earnings pledged shall 17 immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without any 18 physical delivery or further act and the lien on that pledge shall 19 be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any 20 kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the authority, 21 irrespective of whether the parties have notice of the lien or 22 pledge, and without filing or recording the pledge. The resolution 23 or other instrument by which a pledge is created does not have to 24 be recorded.

3 conclusively considered to have agreed that the bond is and shall 4 be fully negotiable within the meaning and for all purposes of the 5 uniform commercial code.

6 (8) In the discretion of the authority, any bonds may be 7 secured by a trust agreement or trust indenture by and between the 8 authority and a trustee, which may be any trust company or bank 9 having the powers of a trust company, whether located within or 10 without this state. A trust agreement or trust indenture authorized 11 under this subsection, or an authority resolution providing for the 12 issuance of bonds may provide for the creation and maintenance of 13 reserves as the authority shall determine to be proper and may 14 include covenants setting forth the duties of the authority in 15 relation to the bonds, the income to the authority, and the sale 16 agreement. A trust agreement or trust indenture authorized under 17 this subsection or an authority resolution may contain provisions 18 respecting the custody, safeguarding, and application of all money 19 and bonds and may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing 20 the rights and remedies under the sale agreement of the owners of 21 the bonds and benefited parties as may be reasonable and proper and 22 not in violation of law. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust 23 company incorporated under the laws of this state that may act as 24 depository of the proceeds of bonds or of any other funds or 25 obligations received on behalf of the authority to furnish 26 indemnifying bonds or to pledge obligations as may be required by 27 the authority. Any trust agreement or trust indenture authorized

1 under this subsection or an authority resolution may contain other 2 provisions as the authority may consider reasonable and proper for 3 priorities and subordination among the owners of bonds and 4 benefited parties.

5 (9) A member of the board or an officer, appointee, or 6 employee of the authority shall not be subject to personal 7 liability when acting in good faith within the scope of his or her
8 authority or on account of liability of the authority. The board 9 may defend and indemnify a member of the board or an officer, 10 appointee, or employee of the authority against liability arising 11 out of the discharge of his or her official duties. The authority 12 may indemnify and procure insurance indemnifying members of the 13 board and other officers and employees of the authority from 14 personal loss or accountability for liability asserted by a person 15 with regard to bonds or other obligations of the authority, or from 16 any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance 17 of the bonds or other obligations or by reason of any other action 18 taken or the failure to act by the authority. The authority may 19 also purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person 20 against the liability asserted against the person and incurred by 21 the person in any capacity or arising out of the status of the 22 person as a member of the board or an officer or employee of the 23 authority, whether or not the authority would have the power to 24 indemnify the person against that liability under this subsection.

25 (10) A member, officer, employee or agent of the authority 26 shall not have an interest, either directly or indirectly, in any 27 business organization engaged in any business, contract or

1 transaction with the authority or in any contract of any other 2 person engaged in any business with the authority, or in the 3 purchase, sale, lease or transfer of any property to or from the 4 authority.

10 129.177.

11 (13) A resolution of the authority authorizing bonds, or the 12 provisions of a trust agreement or trust indenture authorized by 13 resolution of the authority, may delegate to an officer or other 14 employee of the authority, or an agent designated by the authority, 15 for the period of time as the authority determines, the power to 16 cause the issue, sale, and delivery of the bonds within limits on 17 those bonds established by the authority as to any of the 18 following:

19 (a) The form.

20 (b) The maximum interest rate or rates.

21 (c) The maturity date or dates.

1 the bonds as the authority shall prescribe.

3 law, rule, regulation, or order to the contrary, this state and all 4 political subdivisions of this state, their officers, boards,
5 commissioners, departments or other agencies, governmental pension
6 funds, all banks, trust companies, savings banks and institutions, 7 building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, 8 investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or 9 investment business, and all executors, administrators, guardians, 10 trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever 11 who now are or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or 12 other obligations of the state, may properly and legally invest any 13 sinking funds, money or other funds, including capital, belonging 14 to them or within their control, in any bond. Bonds issued by the 15 authority under this act are hereby made bonds that may properly 16 and legally be deposited with, and received by, any state municipal 17 officers or agency of this state, for any purpose for which the 18 deposit of bonds or other obligations of this state is now, or may 19 be, authorized by law.

20 Sec. 10. The authority may be dissolved by act of the 21 legislature on condition that the authority has no debts or 22 obligations outstanding or that provision has been made for the 23 payment or retirement of all debts or obligations. Upon any such 24 dissolution of the authority, all property, funds, and assets of 25 the authority shall be vested in this state.

26 Sec. 11. This act and all powers granted hereby shall be 27 liberally construed to effectuate its intent and their purposes,

1 without implied limitations on the powers of the authority, the 2 state budget director, and the state treasurer. This act shall 3 constitute full, complete, and additional authority for all things
4 that are contemplated in this act to be done. All rights and powers 5 granted in this act shall be cumulative with those derived from 6 other sources and shall not, except as expressly stated in this 7 act, be construed in limitation of those rights and powers. Insofar 8 as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions 9 of any other act, general or special, the provisions of this act 10 shall be controlling. If any clause, paragraph, section, or part of 11 this act is adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be 12 invalid, that judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the 13 remainder of the clause, paragraph, section, or part but shall be 14 applied in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, 15 section, or part directly involved in the controversy in which the 16 judgment shall have been rendered.

17 Sec. 12. (1) The authority shall annually file a written 18 report on its activities of the immediately preceding year with the 19 governor, each house of the legislature, and the chairperson of the 20 appropriations subcommittee of each house of the legislature that 21 has jurisdiction over military and veterans' affairs. This report 22 shall be submitted not later than 90 days following the end of the 23 fiscal year. This report shall specify all of the following:

9 (2) If the authority indicates that a veterans' facility will 10 likely be opening in the next fiscal year under subsection (1)(a), 11 then the authority shall file a supplemental report on its 12 activities every 90 days until the veterans' facility is open and 13 operational. The supplemental report shall be filed with the 14 governor, each house of the legislature, and the chairperson of the 15 appropriations subcommittee of each house of the legislature that 16 has jurisdiction over military and veterans' affairs not later than 17 60 days following the 90-day period covered in the supplemental 18 report. The supplemental report shall specify all the items 19 described in subsection (1)(a) to (g).

20 (3) The accounts of the authority shall be subject to annual 21 audits by the state auditor general or a certified public 22 accountant appointed by the auditor general. However, for the first 23 4 years of the authority's existence, the auditor general shall 24 conduct a financial audit for the first year and biennially
25 thereafter and shall conduct a performance audit for the second 26 year and biennially thereafter. After the initial 4-year period of 27 the authority's existence, the auditor general shall perform a

1 performance audit if a veterans' facility receives a Centers for 2 Medicare and Medicaid Services survey finding that indicates a 3 substandard quality of care as defined in 42 CFR 488.301, upon 4 request by either house of the legislature, or as otherwise
5 determined by the auditor general. Records shall be maintained
6 according to generally accepted auditing principles.
