

Senators Stamas, Brandenburg, Proos, Schmidt, MacGregor, Hood, Hansen, Booher, Horn, Hildenbrand, Bieda, Knollenberg, Jones, Marleau, Ananich, Gregory, Rocca, Hertel, Zorn and Shirkey offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 38.

A resolution to commemorate April 22, 2015, as Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day.

Whereas, Multiple sclerosis can impact men and women of all ages, races, and ethnicities. More than 400,000 Americans live with autoimmune disorder; and

Whereas, Every hour of every day, someone in the United States is newly diagnosed with multiple sclerosis. Approximately 18,000 Michigan residents have been diagnosed with multiple sclerosis; and

Whereas, The exact cause of multiple sclerosis is still unknown, and the symptoms are unpredictable and vary from person to person; and

Whereas, There is no diagnostic laboratory test available for multiple sclerosis. It is not genetic, contagious, or directly inherited, but studies show there are genetic factors that indicate certain individuals are susceptible to the disease; and

Whereas, Multiple sclerosis symptoms occur when an immune system attack affects the myelin in nerve fibers of the central nervous system, damaging or destroying it, and replaces it with scar tissue, thereby interfering with or preventing the transmission of nerve signals; and

Whereas, There is no known cure for multiple sclerosis; and

Whereas, The goals of Multiple Sclerosis State Action Day is to invite people to join the movement to end multiple sclerosis; encourage everyone to do something to demonstrate their commitment to moving toward a world free of multiple sclerosis; and acknowledge those who have dedicated their time and talent to help promote multiple sclerosis research and programs; now, therefore, be it
