CONTENT

The bill would amend the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act to revise the conditions under which a tribunal of this State may exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order.

Under the Act, a tribunal of this State may exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order if the petition or comparable pleading is filed after a pleading is filed in another state or a foreign country only if one of the following applies:

- The petition or a comparable pleading in this State is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in the other state or the foreign country for filing a responsive pleading challenging the exercise of jurisdiction by the other state or the foreign country.
- The contesting party timely challenges the exercise of jurisdiction in the other state or foreign country.
- If relevant, this State is the home state of the child.

Under the bill, all of those conditions would have to apply.
