CONTENT

The bill would amend the Michigan Military Act to allow an individual who was licensed to carry a concealed pistol, or who was exempt from licensure under the handgun licensure Act, to possess a concealed weapon either on his or her person or properly secured while on the premises of an armory or any other building or property under the authority and control of the Adjutant General. The individual would have to comply with the requirements of that Act, and any other State law pertaining to concealed weapons and firearms.

The bill would prohibit the Adjutant General from promulgating rules that unduly burdened the ability of military personnel to possess a concealed weapon as described above.
