

Rep. Geiss offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 160.

A resolution to declare September 2017 as Suicide Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Suicide is the leading cause of injury deaths in Michigan; and

Whereas, Suicide touches people of all ages and walks of life, but the highest rates of suicide are among those aged 25 to 50 and increases with age; and

Whereas, In this state, suicide is the second leading cause of death for 15- to 24-year-olds and a leading cause of death among those individuals enrolled in college; and

Whereas, In the year 2014, more than 1,300 people in Michigan died as a result of suicide; and

Whereas, Suicide's impact in the nation and in our state is enormous, whether measured in numbers of deaths, attempts, economic and medical benefit costs, or the devastation to survivors. The lifetime cost of medical care for persons dying by suicide and those being hospitalized following a suicide attempt is an estimated $51 million; and

Whereas, The causes of suicide are complex and multifaceted, involving psychological, biological, and sociological factors; and

Whereas, Suicide is often the result of untreated mental illness, especially depressive illnesses, and research indicates that many suicides could have been prevented with immediate and appropriate intervention and treatment; and

Whereas, Suicide prevention opportunities continue to increase due to advances in clinical research pertaining to the diagnosis and effective treatment of mental illness, along with advances in neuroscience and in the development of community-based suicide prevention initiatives; and

Whereas, Much more can and must be done to reduce the stigma associated with seeking help for emotional or mental health problems or help for suicidal thoughts and behavior; and

Whereas, Research demonstrates that increased public awareness of warning signs of suicide and awareness of appropriate and effective intervention strategies would reduce suicide deaths; and

Whereas, Greater public consciousness of suicide as a major public health problem will help keep our citizens safe and healthy and is part of the greater efforts of the House of Representatives to raise awareness of mental health issues and prevent suicides; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare September 2017 as Suicide Prevention Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Association of Community Mental Health Boards and mental health and suicide prevention advocates throughout the state of Michigan.
