Senate Bill 253 (as introduced 4-9-19)
Sponsor: Senator Peter J. Lucido
Committee: Judiciary and Public Safety

Date Completed: 10-23-19

CONTENT

The bill would amend Revised Statutes (RS) 81 of 1846 to prohibit a person from bringing an action to enforce certain real estate agreements, promises, or contracts unless the agreement, promise, or contract was in writing signed by the party to be charged.

Generally, RS 81 specifies that in certain cases an agreement, contract, or promise is void unless that agreement, contract, or promise, or a note or memorandum of the agreement, contract, or promise, is in writing and signed with an authorized signature by the party to be charged with the agreement, contract, or promise. One of those cases specified in RS 81 is an agreement, promise, or contract to pay a commission for or upon the sale of an interest in real estate.

Under the bill, a person could not bring an action to enforce an agreement, promise, or contract to pay a commission for or upon the sale of an interest in real estate against the owner or purchaser of the real estate unless the agreement, promise, or contract was in writing signed by the party to be charged.
