Senate Bill 1057 would amend the Medical Marihuana Facilities Licensing Act (MMFLA) to do the following:

- Require a licensee or applicant to include with its filing of proof of financial responsibility for liability an attestation of compliance.
- Modify the forms in which a licensee or applicant could show proof of financial responsibility.
- Require the proof of financial responsibility to cover bodily injuries to a qualifying patient, except those caused by the licensee or its employee or agent who acted with intent to harm.
- Require the Marijuana Regulatory Agency to suspend a licensee's license until the licensee provided the required proof of financial responsibility, if the licensee failed to maintain it.
- Refer to the Marijuana Regulatory Agency instead of the Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs and the Medical Marihuana Licensing Board.

Senate Bill 1058 would amend the MMFLA to modify various definitions to refer to the Marijuana Regulatory Agency instead of the Medical Marihuana Licensing Board.
