(2) It is the public policy of this state that all persons, except those persons incarcerated in state or local correctional

1 facilities, are entitled to full and complete information regarding 2 the affairs of government and the official acts of those who 3 represent them as public officials and public employees, consistent

5 participate in the democratic process.

7 (a) "Council administrator" means the administrator of the 8 legislative council appointed under section 104a of the legislative

11 representatives of this state.

12 (c) "LORA" means the legislative open records act.

15 (ii) An individual designated by a public body to accept and 16 process requests for public records under this part.

17 (e) "Person" means an individual, corporation, limited
18 liability company, partnership, firm, organization, association,

21 county correctional facility in this state or any other state or in 22 a federal correctional facility.

23 (f) "Public body" means a state officer, legislator, employee,
24 agency, department, division, bureau, board, commission, committee,

29 the possession of, or retained by a public body in the performance

1 of an official function that has been in the possession of the 16 data or a field name if disclosure of that field name would not 17 violate a software license.

18 (j) "Unusual circumstances" means any 1 or a combination of 19 the following, but only to the extent necessary for the proper
20 processing of a request:

21 (i) The need to search for, collect, or appropriately examine

3 recording or retaining meaningful content.

4 (l) "Written request" means a writing that asks for information
5 and includes a writing transmitted by facsimile, electronic mail,
6 or other electronic means.

7 Sec. 53. (1) Except as expressly provided in section 59d, upon

9 that describes a public record sufficiently to enable the public
10 body to find the public record, a person has a right to inspect, 11 copy, or receive copies of the requested public record of the 12 public body. A person has a right to subscribe to future issuances
13 of public records that are created, issued, or disseminated on a 14 regular basis. A subscription shall be valid for up to 6 months, at 15 the request of the subscriber, and is renewable. An employee of a 16 public body who receives a request for a public record shall 17 forward that request to the LORA coordinator within 3 business
18 days.

19 (2) A LORA coordinator shall keep a copy of all written 20 requests for public records on file for not less than 1 year.

21 (3) A public body shall furnish a requesting person a 22 reasonable opportunity for inspection and examination of its public
23 records and shall furnish reasonable facilities for making
24 memoranda or abstracts from its public records during the usual
25 business hours. A public body may make reasonable rules necessary 26 to protect its public records and to prevent excessive and 27 unreasonable interference with the discharge of its functions. A 28 public body shall protect public records from loss, unauthorized 29 alteration, mutilation, or destruction.

1 (4) This part does not require a public body to make a
2 compilation, summary, or report of information.

3 (5) This part does not require a public body to create a new 4 public record, except to the extent required by this part for the 5 furnishing of copies, or edited copies of an existing public record
6 under this part.

7 (6) The custodian of a public record shall, upon written 8 request, furnish a requesting person a certified copy of a public 9 record.

10 (7) A public body shall not destroy or alter a record before
