Senate Bill 106 (as reported without amendment)
Sponsor: Senator Curtis S. VanderWall
Committee: Natural Resources

CONTENT

The bill would amend Part 731 (Recreational Trespass) of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act to do the following:

- Prohibit a person from engaging in recreational activity or trapping on another person's property if, among other things, the property were posted against entry with purple paint marks on trees or posts around the property.
- Specify length and height requirements for purple paint marks, and require the paint used to be approved by the Department of Natural Resources.
- Prohibit a person from removing or destroying a purple paint mark that had been placed on a tree or post.
- Prohibit a person from placing purple paint marks on another person's property to prohibit hunting, fishing, trapping, or other recreational activities on that property.
