Senate Bill 791 (as reported without amendment)
Sponsor: Senator Kenneth Horn
Committee: Economic and Small Business Development

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Michigan Employment Security Act to allow the Unemployment Insurance Agency (UIA) to extend a waiver for unemployment eligibility requirements beyond 45 calendar days for an individual who was laid off if, before the end of the specified period of the waiver or extension, the employer notified the UIA that the layoff was an extended layoff as a result of a parts shortage, the extension did not exceed more than 45 calendar days, and the end of the specified period of the extension was not a date after December 31, 2022.

The bill would apply the extension of the waiver as described above retroactively, beginning May 31, 2021.
