

REGIONAL PLANNING (EXCERPT)
Act 281 of 1945

125.21 Local subdivisions; adoption of plans of regional commission.

Sec. 11. Local governmental subdivisions, whether active participants in the work of the regional planning commission or not, may adopt all or any portion of the plans prepared and adopted by the regional planning commission by following those procedures specified by act of the legislature or by local charter for the adoption of an official master plan.

History: 1945, Act 281, Eff. Sept. 6, 1945;—CL 1948, 125.21.