

TALL STRUCTURE ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 259 of 1959

259.485 Application for permit; statement of location and maximum height; applicability of height restrictions.

Sec. 5. (1) It is not necessary that ownership of, option for, or other possessory right to a specific location site be held by the applicant before application for a permit is filed with the commission. A permit, among other things, shall state the specific location and the maximum height allowed for the structure.

(2) The height restrictions of this act do not apply to the alteration of a structure owned by an applicant who is before the federal communications commission under the federal communications commission's mass media docket numbers 80-90 and 84-231, which alteration is a result of those proceedings.

History: 1959, Act 259, Eff. Mar. 19, 1960;—Am. 1986, Act 296, Eff. Apr. 1, 1987.