

OCCUPATIONAL CODE (EXCERPT)

Act 299 of 1980

ARTICLE 26A

339.2661 Definitions.

Sec. 2661. As used in this act:

- (a) "Appraisal" means that term as defined in section 2601.
- (b) "Appraisal management company" means a person that provides appraisal management services.
- (c) "Appraisal management services" means to perform any of the following functions for a client or clients:
 - (i) Recruiting, selecting, and retaining appraisers.
 - (ii) Contracting with independent contract appraisers to perform appraisal assignments.
 - (iii) Managing the process of having an appraisal performed, including, but not limited to, providing administrative services such as receiving appraisal orders and appraisal reports, submitting completed appraisal reports to creditors and secondary market participants, collecting fees from creditors and secondary market participants for services provided, and paying appraisers for services performed.
 - (iv) Reviewing and verifying the work of appraisers.
- (d) "Appraiser" means that term as defined in section 2601.
- (e) "Appraiser panel" means a network, list, or roster of licensed or certified appraisers approved by an appraisal management company to perform appraisals as independent contractors for the appraisal management company. As used in this subdivision, appraiser includes both appraisers accepted by the appraisal management company for consideration for future appraisal assignments and appraisers engaged by the appraisal management company to perform 1 or more appraisals. An appraiser is an independent contractor if the appraiser is treated as an independent contractor by the appraisal management company for purposes of federal income taxation.
- (f) "Certified appraiser" means a certified general real estate appraiser, as that term is defined in section 2601, or a certified residential real estate appraiser, as that term is defined in section 2601.
- (g) "Client" means a person that contracts with, or otherwise enters into an agreement with, an appraisal management company for the performance of real estate appraisal services.
- (h) "Controlling person" means any of the following:
 - (i) An owner, officer, or director of a corporation, partnership, or other business entity that offers or applies to offer appraisal management services in this state.
 - (ii) An individual who is employed, appointed, or authorized by an appraisal management company and has the authority to enter into contractual relationships with clients for the performance of appraisal management services and the authority to enter into agreements with independent appraisers for the performance of real estate appraisal services.
 - (iii) An individual who possesses, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of an appraisal management company.
- (i) "Federally regulated appraisal management company" means an appraisal management company that is owned and controlled by an insured depository institution, as that term is defined in 12 USC 1813, and is regulated by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
- (j) "Real estate appraisal services" means the practice of developing an opinion of the value of real property in a manner that conforms with the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice.
- (k) "Uniform standards of professional appraisal practice" means that term as defined in section 2601.

339.2663 Conduct requiring license; exceptions.

Sec. 2663. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a person shall not do any of the following in this state without a license issued by the department under this article:

- (a) Directly or indirectly engage or attempt to engage in business as an appraisal management company.
- (b) Directly or indirectly perform or attempt to perform appraisal management services.
- (c) Advertise or hold itself out as engaging in or conducting business as an appraisal management company.
- (d) Use the term "appraisal management company", "mortgage technology company", or any similar term that tends to indicate the person is licensed under this act.

(2) This article does not apply to any of the following:

(a) A person that exclusively engages individuals on an employer-employee basis to perform real estate appraisal services in the normal course of its business and that is responsible for ensuring that the real estate appraisal services performed by its employees comply with the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice.

(b) A person that in the normal course of business enters into an agreement, whether written or otherwise, with an independent contractor appraiser for that appraiser to perform real estate appraisal services and, when the appraisal is complete, cosigns the report with that independent contractor appraiser.

(c) A federally regulated appraisal management company, except as related to the information and fees collected by the department that is to be transmitted to the appraisal subcommittee of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council established under section 1004 of the financial institutions regulatory and interest rate control act of 1978, Public Law 95-630, 12 USC 3303.

339.2665 Licensure as appraisal management company; application; form; information; fee; national registry information and fees.

Sec. 2665. (1) A person seeking licensure as an appraisal management company under this article shall submit to the department a license application, in the form prescribed by the department, that includes all of the following information:

(a) The applicant's name.

(b) The street address of the applicant's principal place of business. The department shall not accept an application that includes only a post office box as an address.

(c) Telephone contact information concerning the applicant.

(d) The name and contact information for the applicant's agent for service of process in this state.

(e) The name, address, and contact information for any individual or any corporation, partnership, or other business entity that owns 10% or more of the appraisal management applicant.

(f) The name, address, and contact information for any controlling person of the applicant.

(g) A certification that the applicant has the system and process described in section 2673(1) in place.

(h) A certification that the applicant has the system described in section 2673(2)(b) in place.

(i) A certification that the applicant maintains the detailed record of each service request described in section 2673(3).

(j) A completed irrevocable consent to service of process, in the form prescribed by the department, executed on behalf of the applicant.

(k) Any other information that is reasonably required by the department to process the application.

(2) An applicant for licensure shall include with the application submitted under subsection (1) the license fee described in section 38a of the state license fee act, 1979 PA 152, MCL 338.2238a.

(3) An applicant for licensure or a federally regulated appraisal management company shall provide the department with any national registry information and fees required by the appraisal subcommittee of the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council under section 1109 of the financial institutions reform, recovery, and enforcement act of 1989, Public Law 101-73, 12 USC 3338.

339.2667 Conditions to licensure; bond.

Sec. 2667. (1) The department shall not grant a license to a person applying for a license as an appraisal management company under this article unless all of the following are met:

(a) Any person that is a direct or indirect owner of the applicant has not had an appraiser license or certificate refused, denied, canceled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked for a substantive cause in this state or in any other state, as determined by the department. An applicant is not barred by this subsection if the license or certificate of the appraiser with an ownership interest was not revoked for a substantive cause and has been reinstated by this state or any other states in which the appraiser was licensed or certified.

(b) Any individual who owns more than 10% of the applicant meets all of the following:

(i) Has not had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser refused, denied, canceled, or revoked in this state or in any other state, unless that license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated.

(ii) Has not been convicted of, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony relating to the practice of appraisal or any crime involving fraud, misrepresentation, or moral turpitude.

(iii) Submits to a background investigation, as determined by the department.

(iv) Certifies to the department that he or she has never had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser refused, denied, canceled, or revoked in this state or in any other state, unless that license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated.

(c) The applicant designates an individual to act as the primary contact for all communication between the department and the appraisal management company. The individual designated under this subdivision must be an attorney licensed to practice law in any state or territory of the United States who is designated by the appraisal management company or an individual who meets all of the following:

(i) He or she is a controlling person of the applicant.

(ii) He or she certifies to the department that he or she has never had a certificate or a license issued by this state or any other state to act as an appraiser refused, denied, canceled, or revoked, unless that license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated.

(iii) He or she has not been convicted of, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony relating to the practice of appraisal or any crime involving fraud, misrepresentation, or moral turpitude.

(iv) He or she submits to a background investigation, as determined by the department.

(v) He or she has a valid license as a certified appraiser.

(d) If applicable, the applicant meets subsection (2).

(2) If an application for a license under this article is made by a person whose license under this article was previously denied, suspended, or revoked as a result of disciplinary action for violation of this article or rules promulgated under this article, the department may require, as a condition to licensure of the applicant or the removal of the suspension, that the applicant provide a surety bond to the department that meets all of the following:

(a) Is issued by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in this state.

(b) Expires after the date the license expires.

(c) Is in a principal amount of not more than $5,000.00. The department shall determine the principal amount of the bond, based on the size of the applicant's operation in this state.

(d) Is in a form satisfactory to the department, is payable to the department for the benefit of Michigan residents, and secures the performance of the obligations of the applicant in connection with the conduct of its business.

(3) If the department orders the filing of a bond under subsection (2), a person injured by an unlawful act or omission of the applicant may bring an action in a proper court on the bond for the amount of the damage suffered as a result to the extent covered by the bond.

339.2669 Licensure; issuance; prohibitions; certificate; term; expiration.

Sec. 2669. (1) The department shall not issue a license under this article to a person applying for licensure as an appraisal management company if the person does not meet the requirements of sections 2665 and 2667.

(2) If the department issues a license as an appraisal management company under this article, the department shall provide the licensee a license certificate.

(3) The term of a license under this article is 3 years. The department may grant a shorter term for an initial license under this article so that all licenses issued under this article expire on the same date. The department shall include the expiration date of an appraisal management company's license on its license certificate.

339.2671 Ensuring employees trained or holding license as certified appraiser; definitions; conduct subject to penalties.

Sec. 2671. (1) An appraisal management company shall ensure that any employee of the appraisal management company, or any other individual working on behalf of the appraisal management company, who is responsible for selecting independent appraisers for the performance of real estate appraisal services for the appraisal management company or reviewing completed appraisals for the appraisal management company is appropriately trained.

(2) An appraisal management company shall ensure that any employee or independent contractor of the company who is responsible for completing standard 3 appraisal reviews, or who performs a standard 3 appraisal review, on its behalf has a valid license as a certified appraiser. As used in this subsection:

(a) "Quality control examination" means an examination of an appraisal review report to determine the report's completeness, including, but not limited to, examining the report for grammatical, typographical, or other similar errors.

(b) "Standard 3 appraisal review" means an appraisal review that meets the requirements of standard 3 of the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice for appraisal reviews. The term does not include a quality control examination.

(3) An appraisal management company that does any of the following is subject to the penalties under article 6:

(a) Employs any individual to perform appraisal services who has had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser in this state or in any other state refused, denied, canceled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked, unless that license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated.

(b) Enters into any independent contractor arrangement, whether in verbal, written, or other form, with any individual to perform appraisal services who has had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser in this state or in any other state refused, denied, canceled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked, unless that license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated.

(c) Enters into a contract or agreement with an independent appraiser for the performance of real estate appraisal services unless that individual is licensed under article 26.

(d) Fails, neglects, or refuses to pay an independent appraiser for an appraisal or valuation assignment within 30 days after the date on which the independent appraiser transmits or otherwise provides the completed appraisal or valuation to the appraisal management company or its assignee, unless the appraiser breached his or her agreement with the company concerning that assignment or his or her performance of the appraisal or valuation services was substandard.

(e) Alters, modifies, or otherwise changes a completed appraisal report submitted by an independent appraiser.

(f) Procures a license for itself or anyone else by fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit.

(g) Requires an appraiser to indemnify the appraisal management company or hold the appraisal management company harmless for liability, damage, losses, or claims arising out of the services provided by the appraisal management company, if the appraiser did not perform those services.

339.2673 Ensuring certain system and process in place; annual certification by appraisal management company.

Sec. 2673. (1) An appraisal management company licensed under this article shall certify to the department on an annual basis, on a form prescribed by the department, that it has a system and process in place to do both of the following:

(a) Verify that an individual the company is adding to its appraiser panel is licensed under article 26.

(b) Ensure that the appraisal management company, in engaging an appraiser, selects an appraiser who is independent of the transaction and who has the requisite education, expertise, and experience necessary to competently complete the appraisal assignment for the particular market and property type.

(2) An appraisal management company licensed under this article shall certify to the department on an annual basis, on a form prescribed by the department, that it meets both of the following:

(a) Directs appraisers to perform an assignment in accordance with the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice.

(b) Has a system in place to periodically review the work of appraisers who perform real estate appraisal services for the company to verify that the real estate appraisal services are being conducted in accordance with the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice.

(3) An appraisal management company licensed under this article shall certify to the department on an annual basis, on a form prescribed by the department, that it maintains a detailed record of each service request that it receives and the identity of the independent appraiser that performs the real estate appraisal services for the appraisal management company. An appraisal management company shall retain the records described in this subsection for at least 5 years.

(4) An appraisal management company licensed under this article shall certify to the department on a biannual basis, on a form prescribed by the department, that it has a system in place to verify that each individual on its appraiser panel has not had his or her license as an appraiser refused, denied, canceled, revoked, or surrendered in lieu of a pending revocation in the 24 months preceding the date of the company's certification under this subsection.

(5) An appraisal management company licensed under this article shall certify to the department on an annual basis, on a form prescribed by the department, that it has a system in place to conduct its appraisal management services in accordance with the requirements of section 129E(a) to (i) of the truth in lending act, 15 USC 1639e(a) to (i), and regulations promulgated under that act.

339.2675 Conduct subject to penalties; exceptions.

Sec. 2675. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), an employee, director, officer, or agent of an appraisal management company licensed under this article that influences or attempts to influence the development, reporting, or review of an appraisal through coercion, extortion, collusion, compensation, instruction, inducement, intimidation, or bribery or in any other manner, including, but not limited to, any of the following, is subject to the penalties under article 6:

- (a) Withholding or threatening to withhold timely payment for an appraisal.
- (b) Withholding or threatening to withhold future business for an independent appraiser.
- (c) Demoting or terminating or threatening to demote or terminate an independent appraiser.
- (d) Promising an independent appraiser, either expressly or by implication, future business, promotions, or increased compensation.

(e) Conditioning a request for an appraisal service or the payment of an appraisal fee or salary or bonus on reaching a particular opinion, conclusion, or valuation or on a preliminary estimate or opinion requested from an independent appraiser.

(f) Requesting that an independent appraiser provide an estimated, predetermined, or desired valuation in an appraisal report, or provide estimated values or comparable sales at any time before the independent appraiser's completion of an appraisal service.

(g) Providing to an independent appraiser an anticipated, estimated, encouraged, or desired value for a subject property or a proposed or target amount of a loan to a borrower. However, this subdivision does not prohibit providing a copy of a sales contract for a purchase transaction to the appraiser.

(h) Providing an independent appraiser, or a person related to the appraiser, stock or other financial or nonfinancial benefits.

(i) Removing an independent appraiser from an appraiser panel without prior written notice to that appraiser.

(j) Doing any other act or practice that impairs or attempts to impair an appraiser's independence, objectivity, or impartiality.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit, and shall not be construed to prohibit, an appraisal management company from requesting that an independent appraiser do any of the following:

- (a) Provide additional information about the basis for a valuation.
- (b) Correct objective factual errors in an appraisal report.
- (c) Consider additional verifiable information that was not previously known or considered by the appraiser in completing the valuation or appraisal.

339.2677 Removal of independent appraiser from appraiser panel; requirements; complaint; determination by department.

Sec. 2677. (1) An appraisal management company shall not remove an appraiser from its appraiser panel, or otherwise refuse to assign requests for real estate appraisal services to an independent appraiser, without doing all of the following:

(a) Not less than 10 business days before the removal of the appraiser, notifying the appraiser in writing of all of the following, as applicable:

(i) The reasons why the appraiser will be removed from the panel.

(ii) If the appraiser will be removed from the panel for illegal conduct, a violation of the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice, or a violation of state licensing standards, the nature of the alleged conduct or violation.

(b) Providing an opportunity for the appraiser to respond to the company's notification or notifications under subdivision (a).

(2) If an appraisal management company removes an independent appraiser from its appraiser panel for alleged illegal conduct, an alleged violation of the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice, or an alleged violation of state licensing standards, the appraiser may file a complaint with the department for a review of the decision of the appraisal management company. In its consideration of the complaint, the department may not make any determination regarding the nature of the business relationship between the appraiser and the appraisal management company that is unrelated to the alleged conduct or violation.
