

OCCUPATIONAL CODE (EXCERPT)
Act 299 of 1980

339.1021 Type B personnel agency; prohibited acts.

Sec. 1021. A type B personnel agency shall not do any of the following:

- (a) Put a client in direct contact with a specific employer.
- (b) Contact a specific employer on behalf of a client.
- (c) Advertise the availability of an individual for employment.
- (d) Charge or accept a fee from a client at the time a client procures employment.
- (e) Provide clients with lists of potential employers, if the type B personnel agency chooses to provide such lists in compliance with section 1015, without providing additional consulting services.
- (f) Advertise, including in directories or news media, that it is an employment agency or in such a manner that may lead a client or potential client to believe that the type B personnel agency or any of its agents or employees may, in any way, put a client in direct contact with an employer.
