

MICHIGAN CHILDREN'S INSTITUTE (EXCERPT)
Act 220 of 1935

400.213 Construction of act; severing clause.

Sec. 13. This bill being remedial in its nature and purposes shall be liberally construed in order to accomplish the beneficial purposes herein sought. Should any clause, paragraph, or section of this bill be declared unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the remainder thereof.

History: 1935, Act 220, Imd. Eff. June 8, 1935;—CL 1948, 400.213.