

BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 284 of 1972

450.1251 Formation of corporation for lawful purpose; exception; aiding national emergency.

Sec. 251. (1) A corporation may be formed under this act for any lawful purpose, except to engage in a business for which a corporation may be formed under any other statute of this state unless that statute permits formation under this act.

(2) In time of war or other national emergency, a corporation may take any lawful action to provide aid, notwithstanding the purposes set forth in its articles of incorporation, at the request or direction of a competent governmental authority.
