Act 276 of 1999

487.13503 Sale or purchase of securities or property.

Sec. 3503. (1) A bank may contract for, or purchase from, any of its directors, or from any person of which any of the bank's directors is an officer, director, manager, owner, employee, or agent, any securities or other property, only when the purchase is made in the ordinary course of business upon terms not less favorable to the bank than those offered by others, and the purchase is authorized by a majority of the board of directors not interested in the sale of the securities or property evidenced by their affirmative vote or written assent. If a director, or person of which any director is an officer, director, manager, owner, employee, or agent, acting for or on behalf of others, sells securities or other property to a bank, the commissioner may require a full disclosure to be made of all commissions or other considerations received. If a director or person, acting in his, her, or its own behalf, sells securities or other property to the bank, the commissioner may require a full disclosure of all profits realized from the sale.

(2) A bank may sell securities or other property to any of its directors, or to an entity of which any of its directors is an officer, director, manager, owner, employee, or agent in the ordinary course of business on terms not more favorable to the director or person than those offered to others, when the sale is authorized by a majority of the board of directors of a bank evidenced by their affirmative vote or written assent.

(3) This section shall not be construed as authorizing banks to purchase or sell securities or other property that banks are not otherwise authorized by law to purchase or sell.
