

THE INSURANCE CODE OF 1956 (EXCERPT)
Act 218 of 1956

500.1933 Suits by or against association; assertion or defense of rights.

Sec. 1933. An association, in its own name or through servicing facilities, may sue or be sued and may use the courts to assert or defend any rights the association may have by virtue of this chapter which are reasonably necessary to fully implement this chapter.

History: Add. 1980, Act 341, Eff. June 23, 1981.

Popular name: Act 218