

THE INSURANCE CODE OF 1956 (EXCERPT)
Act 218 of 1956

500.4159 Dissuading consumer from certain acts prohibited.

Sec. 4159. A producer shall not dissuade, or attempt to dissuade, a consumer from any of the following:

- (a) Truthfully responding to an insurer's request for confirmation of the consumer profile information.
- (b) Filing a complaint.
- (c) Cooperating with the investigation of a complaint.

History: Add. 2012, Act 544, Eff. June 1, 2013;—Am. 2020, Act 266, Eff. June 29, 2021.