

REVISED JUDICATURE ACT OF 1961 (EXCERPT)
Act 236 of 1961

600.1531 Alternative time and place of court; notice.

Sec. 1531. Whenever good cause therefor exists, the judge or judges of the circuit may designate a temporary alternative time and place in the same county for holding court. The designation shall be by written order, signed by the judge or judges making the designation, and disseminated to provide reasonable notice. The order shall state the manner in which such notice is to be disseminated.

History: 1961, Act 236, Eff. Jan. 1, 1963.