

REVISED JUDICATURE ACT OF 1961 (EXCERPT)
Act 236 of 1961

600.3312 Mineral rights.

Sec. 3312. Any person who has an estate in possession of any ores, minerals, or metals in lands may maintain a claim for partition. But the claim for partition may be brought only against those persons who have estates in possession of the ores, minerals, and metals.

History: 1961, Act 236, Eff. Jan. 1, 1963.