

SEATING IN HOUSE
Act 58 of 1893

AN ACT to provide for selecting seats for members in the hall of the house of representatives.

History: 1893, Act 58, Eff. Aug. 28, 1893.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

4.61 House of representatives; assignment of seats; applicability of act.

Sec. 1. (1) As a part of the organization of the house of representatives on the first day of the first regular session of each legislature, the clerk shall allocate the seats in the hall of the house between the political parties whose members were duly elected to the office of state representative at the immediately preceding general election.

(2) The majority leader of the house of representatives shall assign each member of the majority caucus to a seat. The minority leader of the house of representatives shall assign each member of the minority caucus to a seat.

(3) If any member is not assigned a seat under subsection (2), the majority leader of the house of representatives shall assign that member to a seat.

(4) The assignments to a seat under this section must be printed in the house journal.

(5) This act does not apply if section 54 of article IV of the state constitution of 1963 is repealed or is amended after the effective date of the amendatory act that added this subsection.
