

WRONGFUL IMPRISONMENT COMPENSATION ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 343 of 2016

 691.1756.new THIS NEW SECTION IS EFFECTIVE MARCH 29, 2017 *****

691.1756.new Wrongful imprisonment compensation fund.

Sec. 6. (1) The wrongful imprisonment compensation fund is created as a separate fund in the state treasury.

(2) The state treasurer may receive money or other assets from any source for deposit into the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund.

(3) The state treasurer shall direct the investment of the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund. The state treasurer shall credit to the fund interest and earnings from fund investments.

(4) The department of treasury is the administrator of the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund for auditing purposes.

(5) The state treasurer shall expend money from the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund only for the purpose of paying claims authorized under this act and costs of administration. The state treasurer shall pay money from the fund in amounts and at the times as ordered by the courts under this act.

(6) Money in the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund at the close of the fiscal year must remain in the fund and not lapse to the general fund.

(7) If there is insufficient money in the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund to pay claims as ordered under this act, the state treasurer shall pay claims that are ordered but not paid if money becomes available in the fund, and pay those claims before subsequently ordered claims. The state treasurer shall develop and implement a process to notify the legislature that money in the fund may be insufficient to cover future claims when the state treasurer reasonably believes that within 60 days the money in the fund will be insufficient to pay claims. The process shall, at a minimum, do all of the following:

(a) Identify a specific date by which the money in the fund will become insufficient to pay claims.

(b) Outline a clear process indicating the order in which claims pending with the fund will be paid.

(c) Outline a clear process indicating the order in which claims that were pending with the fund when money became insufficient will be paid, if money subsequently becomes available.

(8) Any compensation under this act must be paid from the wrongful imprisonment compensation fund and not from any state department's or agency's annual budget or current funding.
